REBEL BLANQUET IS LAID LOW

The Leader of Insurrection Against Carranza Government Died in Fight

HE RECENTLY LEFT THE UNITED STATES

It Was Reported That He Was Leading a Great Expedition

Mexico City, April 17 (By the Associated Press).—General Aureliano Blanquet, war minister in President Huerta's cabinet, who recently was reported to have landed in the Vera Cruz region for the purpose of starting a revolution against the Carranza government, was killed yesterday in a fight near Chavastla village, according to press reports from Vera Cruz, which quote a report from General Francisco Lurquize, chief of military operations in the region of Cordova and Orizaba.

According to the telegrams given out by General Urquize, the commander in the region of Chavastla, General Guadalupe Sanchez, met a party of rebels under Blanquet late yesterday afternoon, defeating them. The body of General Blanquet was found later. General Sanchez telegraphed that he was bringing General Blanquet's head to Vera Cruz to establish the identification.

General Francisco Alvaraz was taken prisoner, together with the family of Pedro Gavay, one of the most active lieutenants of Felix Diaz. Vera Cruz papers have recently been printing numerous stories regarding General Blanquet's proposed revolt. These stories have been published in the United States, but General Blanquet's claim that he had 40,000 men, with artillery and an airplane, and that he was allied with other factions, has been scouted officially. The band which General Blanquet was leading when he was killed was small and was poorly equipped, it is reported.

General Aureliano Blanquet sailed from New York for a port in the West Indies on Jan. 8, last. He was provided with passports and credentials, but the fact of his departure was known to only a few of his intimate friends. He was accompanied by General Guan Montano and Brigadier General Enrique Gonzalez, with some minor officers. The party landed at an unfrequented Mexican port late in March and was met by a guard sent by Felix Diaz and was escorted to Tuxtepec, the headquarters of the Diaz forces. Since that time, there have been reports of operations by General Blanquet and his chief, Senor Diaz.

General Blanquet was 71 years old.

CLEMENCEAU TO WRITE BOOK.

Just as Soon as He Retires from Politics and Takes Vacation.

Paris, April 17.—Premier Clemenceau, too, will write a book after the peace conference is over.

"As soon as the peace problems have been solved," he said recently, "and I have finished my task, I shall take a rest that, after 50 years of politics, I think I have well earned. And, in my retirement, I shall write a book which perhaps no one will read but which I, at all events, shall be glad to have written."

It has been stated by those close to Premier Clemenceau that it was his earnest desire to finish his present task and retire. His vitality has been remarked upon recently as being extraordinary and the virility and vigor of former days has been evident.

Americans who have called upon the French premier following his return to health, say that he is full of humor and enjoys a jovial existence.

Housework Is a Burden

Woman's lot is a weary one at best. But with backache and other distressing kidney ills, life indeed becomes a burden. Doan's Kidney Pills have made life brighter for many Barre women. Read what Mrs. N. M. Nelson, 20 Merchant street, Barre, says:

"A severe attack of the grip left my kidneys in a weakened condition. The slightest housework tired me, and after I was on my feet for any great time, sharp pains across my back compelled me to stop and rest. Other complications came on, and my kidneys began to act unnaturally. I paid out over one hundred dollars, seeking relief, but got none. I became discouraged until someone advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills. They stopped the trouble in a short time and rid me of the dangerous attack."

OVER SIX YEARS LATER, Mrs. Nelson said:

"I still use Doan's now and then and find them as excellent as when I first recommended them."

Col. H. O. Bixby, chairman of the fifth Liberty loan committee in this town, says it is actually surprising to see how the people generally are jumping after these bonds, and if that is the fact, it is up to every man or woman who wants a bond to get on the job or they will get left. This is one of the instances where everyone should remember that procrastination is the thief of time.

MAJOR WOOD IS READY TO FLY

British Aviator May Start on His Trans-Atlantic Flight Friday

GOES TO LIMERICK FROM ENGLAND

Start Depends on Whether Weather Conditions Continue

East Church, England, April 17.—Major J. C. P. If the present improved weather conditions continue, he said, he would start his flight across the Atlantic to-morrow.

SUBMARINE BEST WAY TO REACH NORTH POLE

Stefansson Lists the Dirigible Balloon Second and Finally the Airplane—Submarines Would Pass Under the Ice Packs.

San Francisco, Cal., April 17.—In the way of modern methods of transportation as a means of reaching the north pole, the submarine comes first in the estimation of Vilhjalmur Stefansson, the Arctic explorer. Next comes the dirigible balloon, and finally the airplane.

"The submarine appears to me to be a perfectly practicable way of reaching the pole as well as a comfortable way, for one could carry all the necessary equipment," said Mr. Stefansson on his recent visit here while discussing Arctic exploration with friends. "I seldom have seen a stretch of ice extending more than 30 miles without coming to open water. Under the circumstances there never would be any difficulty in the matter of getting to the surface. Also the navigator would be assured of calm water when he comes up in these ice-hemmed bays of water."

"The submarine already has been used for getting to icebound ports by passing under the ice. They may be provided with wheels so as to go along the channel bottom. A large submarine will only weigh about 600 pounds on the wheels when submerged in this manner. In constructing an under ice submarine the periscope and much of the above deck construction would be done away with and in place of it would be a deck coming to a ridge similar to a roof, which would cut through thin ice when coming to the surface. Ocean ice is mushy and I have seen a whale come up through a thickness of six or seven inches of ice."

TO MEET THE BOYS.

From St. Johnsbury Will Go One Father with Four Sons in Service.

St. Johnsbury, April 17.—In response to a request from the adjutant general of Vermont, the citizens of St. Johnsbury have raised a sum of $100 to send four fathers of soldiers down Boston harbor the last of the week to meet their boys coming home in the 26th division. The fathers selected are Dennis Cassidy and John LeCroix. Mr. Cassidy had four boys in service and expects two on the Patricia, which will arrive Saturday. Mr. LeCroix had three boys in the service, and also has two boys coming on the Patricia.

Orange County Red Cross Notes.

The national bureau of chapter production has ruled that Red Cross labels on garments are no longer essential. The same ruling applies to knitted articles, especially children's stockings, where it is strongly advised they should not be used.

According to the Red Cross bulletin, one of the great tasks now—in the taking up of peace relief work in the foreign field—will be to provide garments for refugees. There are millions to be clothed and the American Red Cross must give all the aid possible, for representatives in Europe say that all that can be given for many months to come will not be too much to meet the demands that will be presented. This statement of the situation is a summons to the Red Cross chapters to devote their best energies in assisting the general organization in a service to humanity that will carry its own reward.

The American Red Cross has appropriated $100,000 to be used for a public health scholarship fund in the hope that many of the 20,000 graduate nurses soon to be released from war service will take either eight months' or four months' training in public health nursing, as the recent influenza has called attention to that vital need.

J. W. Studebaker, national director of the Junior Red Cross, an organization of 9,000,000 members, says, "The Junior Red Cross plans to send to the children of America interesting illustrated reports on the progress of relief work abroad. Pamphlets, telling stories of the life of American children will be sent abroad and thus help to make the children of the several nations intimately acquainted, which is essential to the successful administration of the league of nations."

The American boys and girls, through the medium of the Junior Red Cross, are to play an active part in the relieving of the distress of their brothers and sisters in the war-swept countries.

Mary Carr Tewksbury, publicity director of Orange county chapter of Red Cross.

Vermont Towns Send Delegations.

Nearly all of the towns to which Gen. H. T. Johnson sent requests that delegates go to Boston to participate in the reception to the Vermont boys have responded to that request, but a few towns have not, including Barre, Bellows Falls and Springfield. Burlington will send about 50 men, St. Albans will be officially represented by W. D. Chandler and William Finn, while others will also go. Rutland by M. B. Askey, Northfield by Rev. C. E. Bingham, St. Johnsbury by Dennis Cassidy and John LeCroix; Newport, Elias Leavitt and George Merrick. Brattleboro will send a delegation and so will other towns, it is expected.

For thirty years Alfred H. Winslow has been a hardware merchant in Bennington, beginning there April 15, 1889.

The In-and-Outer Won't Do

The man who does brilliantly to-day, —and then flops miserably to-morrow, —doesn't measure up to the daily needs of this work-a-day world; —he's not dependable enough.

Similarly, the tires you want for your automobile must be practical, dependable, matter-of-fact tires, —the tires that, day after day, will keep on piling up mileage, and pulling down mileage cost.

—the tires with the red sidewalls, —have one big outstanding feature—dependability; —a record for taking the luxury-cost out of motoring.

If you want a tire that will make you come back for more, buy one DIAMOND.
